

Worksheet 2-2. Modeling natural tessellations using geometric tessellations

For each real-world object, first draw a portion as a tessellation of tiles that are close to the photograph in shape, and then as a more geometrically-regular tessellation, as shown in the example.

